THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF THE LOYALTY CLUB.

Very Enjoyable Exercises Held in the Rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association-Features of the Interesting Programme-Arrangements Made for the Republican Mass Meeting to Be Held Thursday Evening, Oct. 25-Orators Who Will Address the Voters.

The Loyalty club of the South Scranton Young Women's Christian association is three years old. The occasion was fittingly celebrated last night in the rooms on Cedar avenue, where a light collation was served, toasts responded to and an entertainment given. The rooms, gracefully adorned with ferns and potted palms, together with cangled masses of autumnal leaves, presented a most inviting appearance to the club as they marched in and took their appointed places to the strain of the club march played by Miss Frances Klauminzer.

Covers were laid for fifty, and the tables were arranged in the shape of a large U. After a jolly social hour, spent in partaking of the good things prepared, Miss Mary Christophel, who was toastmaster, called the meeting to order and called on Miss Frances Klauminzer, who responded to the toast, "Our Name," in a brief but exceedingly clever manner. Miss Cora Young then recited "How Mose Counted the Eggs," and was followed by the toast, "Our Members," by Miss Lizzie Renchler. A song by the club was next in order after which followed the toasts. "Our Motto," by Miss Barbara Gebhardt, and "Our Future," by Miss Lillie

Miller. Miss Anna Scheuer rendered a plane solo, after which came a number which was not upon the programme. It was one of the surprises in store for the members as well as for Miss Van Nort, the secretary, who was presented a bouquet of roses of white and red, representing the colors of the association, and also representing the fourth anniversary as secretary of this branch of the Young Men's Christian association. The presentation speech was made by the retiring president, Miss Mary Christophel. Miss Van Nort responded in a neat speech, thanking them for their kindness and urging them to be like roses, smiling and cheering continually, and have an upward and onward aim in life.

As this was the first entertainment given by the Loyalty club under the new self-managing and self-governing regime, credit should be given where credit is due. The committee in charge of the arrangements and reception were: Miss Kate Opper, Lillian Miller, Barbara Gebhardt, Lizzie Horbach, Anna Scheuer, Fred Kornacher, Frances Klauminzer and Mary Christophel. The refreshment committee was Miss Louisa Stiemele, Emma Renchler, Barbara Christophed, Lucy Huber, Mollie Helm. Dora Scheuer, Emma Webber and Cora Young,
